Our Lady of Fatima May 13th

On May 13, 1917, the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared to three shepherd children as they were grazing their sheep in Fatima, Portugal. Their names were Lucia, Francisco, and Jacinta. She appeared "brighter than the sun, shedding rays of light clearer and stronger than a crystal goblet filled with the most sparkling water and pierced by the burning rays of the sun." The Virgin Mary identified herself as Our Lady of the Rosary. She taught the children to recite the rosary daily, to pray for the conversion of sinners, to make small sacrifices as penance in reparation for sin, and to honor her Immaculate Heart. She also prophesied about the World Wars, showed the children a frightening vision of hell, warned of the spread of ideological errors from Russia, and asked that the Holy Father solemnly consecrate Russia to her Immaculate Heart in union with the world's bishops. Our Lady appeared at Fatima on the 13th day of the month from May to October of that year. The final apparition was the well-documented celestial phenomena of the "Miracle of the Sun" witnessed by tens of thousands of people, believers and unbelievers alike. After investigation, the apparition at Fatima was declared worthy of belief by the Catholic Church. The feast of Our Lady of Fatima is May 13th.

Let us Pray

O Most Holy Virgin Mary, Queen of the most holy Rosary, you were pleased to appear to the children of Fatima and reveal a glorious message. We implore you, inspire in our hearts a fervent love for the recitation of the Rosary. By meditating on the mysteries of the redemption that are recalled therein may we obtain the graces and virtues that we ask, through the merits of Jesus Christ, our Lord and Redeemer. Amen

A Vocation View: Jesus said to his disciples 'Go into the whole world and proclaim the Good News to all creation.' There are still dark aspects to our world and to our neighbourhood that need the Good News. Answer the call to 'Go and teach all people the Good News, and remember I am with you always, until the end of time.'

Prayer: For all men and women now discerning their vocation in Christ, that they will have confidence in Him, who calls them each as members of His body, we pray to the Lord.

Action: IN A WORLD dominated by individualism, secularism and relativism, it is good to be reminded that in the final analysis it is not what we have but who we are that counts! It is good to be grounded in faith to make decisions in the light of truth.

. . . far above every principality, authority, power, and dominion. (Ephesians 1:21)

As we celebrate the Ascension of the Lord, let's heed the words of St. Augustine: "Today our Lord Jesus Christ ascended into heaven; let our hearts ascend with Him" (Sermon on the Ascension, 1). So let's lift our hearts and let Jesus give us a glimpse of all that He has accomplished by His ascension to heaven. Let's praise Him for His heavenly glory!

"Jesus, You are seated at the Father's right hand (Ephesians 1:20)! As the eternal Son of God, You have glory beyond my wildest imagination. Angels bow before You and sing Your praises. Let my voice be one with theirs as I proclaim Your praises today!"

"When You ascended, Jesus, You gave us access to the Father's house. Now I can have confidence that where You have gone, I can also follow—not just in spirit, but as You did, in bodily form. I praise You, Lord, because Your ascension shows me that I can have hope of the resurrection of my own body.

"In Your heavenly splendor, Jesus, You continue to love me and give Yourself for me. Now I know that You are the eternal high priest. Your glorified body still bears the marks of Your crucifixion, and Your sacrifice never ceases to bring glory to Your Father. Thank you, Jesus, that You are always interceding for me, for my loved ones, and for all people everywhere.

"Jesus, Your dominion and glory and heavenly kingdom will never end. You have been enthroned, and all of creation has been placed beneath Your feet. Now I can look to You in hope, trusting Your power to act.

Glory to You, Lord Jesus, who fill all things in every way (Ephesians 1:23)!"

"Jesus, I lift my heart to you, to worship you and praise your heavenly glory!"
