Reflection

It seems the world is becoming a worse and worse place. There is so much division, so much turmoil. The human race has made so much progress, but progress in the wrong direction. Today's great Feast of Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, helps to put everything back into perspective. The Kingdom of God is not of this world. This world is passing away. Earthly peace is really unachievable.

Does this mean we should give up and escape from the world? Absolutely not! Christ did not give up on this world, but by His words and His signs He proclaimed the coming of His Kingdom. His body is that kingdom. The Church is His body. We are here to witness to Christ's kingship by our lives. Our concern for truth, justice, and mercy is not so much to make this world a better place, but to draw others into a kingdom not of this world. Our King is no tyrant, He is meek and just. He is poor. To serve the poor by acts of mercy is to serve Christ, and to not serve the poor is to reject the inevitable coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe.

Do I Really Have to Wear a Mask?

A message from Fr. Kendrick

Well, it looks like masks have been made mandatory. I know people have mixed feelings. Does this impinge on my freedom? Shouldn't I be able to make my own health decisions? First they say not to wear masks, and now they say to wear them.

For me, mask wearing makes much more sense when we think about others instead of ourselves.

I do not know if I am a carrier of the virus or not.

It is a reasonable and courteous safeguard of keeping my spit to myself so that others are less likely to contract the virus from me if I happen to carry it without knowing.

Now it does seem reasonable to suppose that my wearing a mask will not help me much from getting sick. A mask could actually make me sick more easily if I constantly fidget with it, touching my face and so forth. Masks can be the perfect habitat for a lot of bacteria too (they should be changed and washed regularly).

For me, wearing a mask is an act of charity for others.

I believe masks in our situation serves the common good, and the legislators do have a right to make it a law in the same way that a trampoline park can make socks mandatory to prevent the transmission of warts.

I believe it a just law, and we should be obedient.
