Vocation Corner- Since each person speaks from his heart's abundance, let Jesus form your heart and your life. Follow Him willingly. Prayer: That by their example of seeking first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness, priest, deacons, sisters and brothers will win many souls to Christ, we pray to the Lord. Action: A good vocation is simply a firm and constant will in which the person who is called must serve God in the way and in the places to which almighty God has called him.
Saint Francis de Sales (1567- 1622)

ASH WEDNESDAY / Fasting and Abstaining

Like a splash of cold water to the face to awaken a person at the beginning of a new day, ashes on the forehead are to awaken the recipient to the beginning of a new season in the Church's liturgical year. These ashes are produced by burning palm branches from the previous year's Palm Sunday celebration; in this way, the year has come full cycle.

It is once again time to examine oneself and prepare for a new Easter.

Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of fasting.

The law of fast binds those who are from 18 to 59 years old, unless they are excused for a sufficient reason. The law of fasting allows only one full meal a day, but does not prohibit taking some food in the morning and evening.

Ash Wednesday and all Fridays of Lent are days of abstinence

The law of abstinence binds those who are 14 years old or older and forbids the use of meat, but not of eggs, the products of milk or condiments made of animal fat

Lord, we would grow with You. New shoots reaching out. Hands stretched upward.

Like leaves newly formed. Soaking up Your light and warmth Lord, we would grow with You

Lord, we would grow with You. In sunshine and rain. In darkness and light. In cold days and summer days.

From Springtime to Winter Lord, we would grow with You

Lord, we would grow with You. And bring forth fruit . That is pleasing to You. Fed by your living water.

Giving sustenance to others Lord, we would grow with You

From the fullness of the heart the mouth speaks. (Luke 6:45)

What were the last words that came out of your mouth? It's a question you might nervously ask yourself after today's readings. Sirach warns that everyone is tested by their words, since "one's speech disclose[s] the bent of one's mind" (27:6). Similarly, Jesus tells us, "From the fullness of the heart the mouth speaks" (Luke 6:45). In other words, your words reveal what's important to you, what is at the forefront of your thoughts and desires. If you were to keep track of everything you say in the course of a day, you'd discover that your heart is filled with many different things: gratitude, worry, trust, frustration, fear, ambition, or love. A setback in the morning might trigger an angry outburst, but later in the day, it might prompt you to offer a few words of prayer and trust in the Lord. A disappointment might provoke a bitter complaint, or it might cause you to thank God for the many ways he is already taking care of you.

We all struggle. The good news is that, as Sirach says, "The fruit of a tree shows the care it has had" (27:6).

That means it's possible to change what fills your heart and comes out of your mouth.

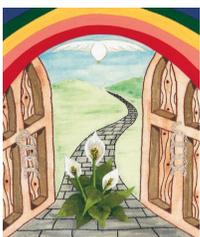

How? By allowing Jesus to care for you. The more you receive his care, the more your "fruit" will improve.

As your heart is filled with his love, your words will be more loving and kind.

So take heart! Let Jesus convince you of his compassion. Come and receive the richness of his mercy. Let these attributes fill your heart, and it will become easier to speak words of forgiveness or understanding when you are wronged. Let him show you how he is fulfilling his promises in your life, even in ways you can't predict, so that you can become more patient and trusting when life gets hard. Let his word shape your words.

"Lord, fill my heart with what is pleasing to you."
