Vocation Corner –31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

A Vocation View: Do whatever is necessary to see Jesus: climb a tree, make a retreat, confess your sins, read His life story, help an enemy, say a prayer. He will stay with you today.

Prayer: That the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in all those chosen to follow Him as priests, deacons or in the consecrated life, and that they in turn will be glorified for their faithfulness to His call, we pray to the Lord.

Action: Religious orders are not formed for the purpose of gathering together perfect people but those who have the courage to aim at perfection. Saint Francis de Sales

Halloween The Solemnity of All Saints is celebrated on Nov.1. It is the day that the Church honors all of God's saints. We celebrate the memory of those family members now sharing eternal happiness in the presence of God and rejoice that they have reached their eternal goal and ask their prayers on our behalf. Saints or holy people are called "hallowed", hence the name "All Hallow's Day". The evening, or "e'en" before the feast became popularly known as "All Hallows' Eve" or even shorter, "Hallowe'en". Nov.2 is the date designated to pray for all the departed souls in Purgatory, the Feast of All Souls.

The feasts of All Saints and All Souls fall back to back to express the Christian belief of the "Communion of Saints." which is the union of all the faithful on earth (the Church militant), the saints in Heaven (the Church Triumphant) and the Poor Souls in Purgatory (the Church suffering), with Christ as the Head. They are bound together by a supernatural bond, and can help one another. The Church Militant (those on earth still engaged in the struggle to save their souls) can venerate the Church Triumphant, and those saints can intercede with God for those still on earth. Both the faithful on earth and the saints in heaven can pray for the souls in Purgatory. During these two days we see the Communion of Saints really in action!

On All Souls Day at least one Mass should be attended and the Sorrowful Mysteries of the Rosary prayed. There are plenary indulgences, applicable only to the souls in Purgatory, that can be obtained during this time. One plenary indulgence can be obtained by devoutly visiting a cemetery and praying for the departed between Nov.1—8. A plenary indulgence is also granted when the faithful piously visit a church or a public oratory on Nov. 2 and it is required, that one Our Father and the Creed be said.

To attain the plenary indulgence, three conditions must accompany the act of visiting the cemetery or church: the faithful must receive the sacrament of confession, either 8 days before or after, receive Holy Communion on that day, and recite prayers for the intention of the Holy Father (one Our Father and one Hail Mary is the minimum, but other additional prayers may be added).
