Sask. Knights of Columbus Vocations Endowment Month—In 2018 the Bishops of Saskatchewan partnered with the Sask. K of C Charitable Foundation to create the Sask. K of C Vocations Endowment. The proceeds from this Endowment are disbursed on an annual basis equally to each seminarian throughout all Saskatchewan Dioceses, Eparchy and Abbey to help defray the $30,000.00 per year it costs to educate each Seminarian.

Our Fr. Schultz Council will participate with our Parish in a fundraising campaign during the month of February 2024

We currently have 7 Seminarians from the four Dioceses, the Eparchy and the Abbey. These young men are committed to become future leaders in our Saskatchewan Catholic communities. As practicing Catholics, we each have a role in encouraging these Seminarian through prayer and financial support.

The Bishops, Priests and all of us appreciate your support.

Please continue your ongoing prayers for Vocations and make a donation today.

Every donation is 100% tax deductible. Within four weeks our Foundation will mail or email you an official tax receipt for the total amount of your donation. Tax receipts will be issued for all donations in excess of $20.00 (Reg. Charity # 134432327RR001)

More details about the Vocation Endowment, including photos of the Seminarians in Saskatchewan can be found at the Foundation's website <https://saskkofc.foundation/sask-k-ofc-vocations/>.

Vocation Corner Fifth Sunday of the Year – B

A Vocation View: The afflicted Job in the Old Testament thinks that his life is like dust in the wind; his restlessness depicting the sorrow and sadness afflicting society today. Are we prepared for the task ahead? “To heal the broken-hearted, to bind up all their wounds.” How do you choose to respond?

Prayer: That all Catholics will recognize that they are entrusted with the commission to pray for vocations and so beg the Holy Spirit to guide the deep searching of all who are discerning their vocations in Christ, we pray to the Lord.

Action: DID YOU KNOW... offering up one's suffering and trials is a wonderful form of prayer?

Raised to Serve: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's First Reading, Job describes the futility of life before Christ. His lament reminds us of the curse of toil and death placed upon Adam following his original sin (see Genesis 3:17–19). Men and women are like slaves seeking shade, unable to find rest. Their lives are like the wind that comes and goes.

But, as we sing in today's Psalm, He who created the stars promised to heal the brokenhearted and gather those lost in exile from Him (see Isaiah 11:12; 61:1).

We see this promise fulfilled in today's Gospel.

Simon's mother-in-law is like Job's toiling, hopeless humanity.

She is laid low by affliction but too weak to save herself.

But as God promised to take His chosen people by the hand (see Isaiah 42:6), Jesus grasps her by the hand and helps her up. The word translated “help” is actually Greek for “raising up.” The same verb is used when Jesus commands a dead girl to arise (see Mark 5:41–42). It's used again to describe His own resurrection (see Mark 14:28; 16:7).

What Jesus has done for Simon's mother-in-law, He has done for all humanity—raised all of us who lay dead through our sins (see Ephesians 2:5).

Notice all the words of totality and completeness in the Gospel. The whole town gathers; all the sick are brought to Him. He drives out demons in the whole of Galilee. Everyone is looking for Christ.

We too have found Him. By our baptism, He healed and raised us to live in His presence (see Hosea 6:1–2).

Like Simon's mother-in-law, there is only one way we can thank Him for the new life He has given us.

We must rise to serve Him and His gospel.

Our lives must be our thanksgiving, as Paul describes in today's Epistle. We must tell everyone the good news, the purpose for which Jesus has come—that others, too, may have a share in this salvation.
