Reflection

God speaks. Let's pause there for a moment. This fundamental truth is at the heart of faith. In fact, it is at the heart of all reality—of creation, of salvation, of love, life, and knowledge. The foundation of all reality is ordered by God's spoken Word. God does not speak gibberish, but a perfectly formulated thought, a thought generated from all eternity, a thought that is, in the truest sense, one with God. God's Word is Wisdom. God's Word is Power. What God says is. And when God speaks, His Word accomplishes what it was intended to do. God does not speak falsely. God does not deceive. God does not go back on His promise. What is more, this God speaks to you and me. That's amazing!

What does He say? What could the almighty God want to say to me? Listen—listen to the Word of the Lord! The Word is a person, and His Name is Jesus; listen to Him! There is nothing more important to do. To listen to Christ and to receive Him is to receive God Himself. Let us not throw His words to the wind, let us not let them be trampled underfoot, let us not let them be choked out, but let us ponder them day and night.

Once a week is not enough.

Diaconal Vocations

A Message from the Vocations Commission and Fr. Kendrick

Fr. Travis and the vocations commission sent us this message: "This summer our diocese has the honour once again of ordaining men to the Permanent Diaconate. The celebration was postponed and will most likely be invite only, but it will be at Sacred Heart Cathedral on August 10, the feast of St. Lawrence.

As a way of showing our solidarity with them we are asking all parishes to provide a spiritual bouquet.... Some may be asking, "What is a Spiritual Bouquet?" Spiritual Bouquets are prayers or devotional acts that someone (the giver) has or will offer for someone else (the recipient). The idea is that each prayer is like a flower, and combined prayers are a bouquet offered to the individual. It can be given from an individual or a parish to express joy and/or best wishes. The Vocations Commission suggests that a large card be made from heavy paper, perhaps with a bouquet of flowers on it, with perhaps a scripture verse. Along the sides should be the signatures of those pledging, along with the action they are pledging: be it a Rosary, Holy Hour, Days of Fasting, Act of Charity, Special Novenas, or any other spiritual action. It is our hope that they will keep these bouquets close to his heart for the rest of their lives!"

I think having everybody sign could be problematic at this time, so I suggest people send their pledges by email or phone/text to Carmen or myself and we can ask some of our more artistic brothers and sisters to compile the prayer pledges onto a beautiful card or something. Other ideas? let me know.

Let us show our support!

July 9, 2020

To all the faithful of the Diocese of Prince Albert,

Summer is here and we give thanks to the Lord for his many blessings bestowed upon us as we look forward to continuing his mission in the warm sunshine and brightly coloured landscape!

Our diocesan Permanent Diaconate program began years ago leading many candidates in prayer, discernment, and instruction of faith. At this time, the Permanent Diaconate formation team, directed by Fr. Michael Averyt, has presented five candidates who have been readied for ordination, Ron Johnson, Paul Joy, Harry Lafond, Richard Lucas, and William Thibeault. As you know, the Covid-19 virus has interrupted most of our spring schedule. Therefore, again, I would like to share with you the following announcement:

With much joy, I have accepted these candidates for Ordination to the Permanent Diaconate and have rescheduled the celebration as follows:

Ron Johnson	of St. Agatha, Shellbrook
Paul Joy	of St. Joseph, Prince Albert
Harry Lafond	of Our Lady of Guadalupe, Muskeg Lake First Nation
Richard Lucas	of Shrine of St. Theresa, Wakaw
William Thibeault	of Our Lady of Peace, Meadow Lake

Ordinations to the Permanent Diaconate

Feast of St. Lawrence, Deacon
Monday, August 10 7:00 p.m.
Sacred Heart Cathedral, Prince Albert

Due to the Covid-19 pandemic, those attending the celebration will be by invitation only. However, the celebration will be streamed on Facebook and made available later on the diocesan website. I invite everyone to join us in joyful thanksgiving for Ron, Paul, Harry, Richard, and William in responding to the call of our Lord. Let us carry them in our prayers so they may respond faithfully to their vocation as Deacon for the Diocese of Prince Albert in service of the mission of the Lord.

Sincerely in Christ,

+Albert Thévenot M. Afr.
Bishop of Prince Albert
