Gracious Father, the Giver of all good gifts, I bow before you, my heart brimming with gratitude for this week's blessings. As I prepare to usher in the weekend, I seek Your continued guidance and favor. Thank you, Lord, for your blessings in my life.

Lord Jesus, You have faithfully guided me through the trials and triumphs of the past days. I acknowledge Your loving hand in every accomplishment, Your comforting presence in every challenge. I thank You for the gift of work, for the opportunities to learn and grow, and for the strength to carry out my duties.

As I wind down from the week's labor, I pray for a peaceful and restful weekend. Bless my home, my family, and my friends. Let our time together be filled with joy, laughter, and unity. Let us use this time to rest, reflect, and rejuvenate, remembering always to give thanks for Your bountiful blessings.

May Your blessings overflow, Lord not just for me, but for those around me. Help me to be a blessing to others, reflecting Your love and grace. And, as I step into the weekend, I seek Your peace, protection, and provision. Amen

Vocation Corner - 5th Sunday of Easter

A Vocation View: Can you imagine a country running on Jesus' one law of "love one another"?

No wars. No hunger. No thirst. No jealousy. Only loving followers of Jesus.

Prayer: That the coming of the new heaven and new earth will be hastened through the holy lives and faithful witness of all those called to serve the Lord as priests, deacons, sisters and brothers, we pray to the Lord.

Action: Saint Thérèse of Lisieux lived in a Carmelite convent with her older sister Pauline. Pauline was with Thérèse throughout her brief life, illness, and death at the tender age of 24. It is no accident that Jesus sent out his disciples in pairs. Having a spiritual companion, as Thérèse did, can be of great help and comfort on the sometimes difficult spiritual journey. Cultivate spiritual friendships in your own life.

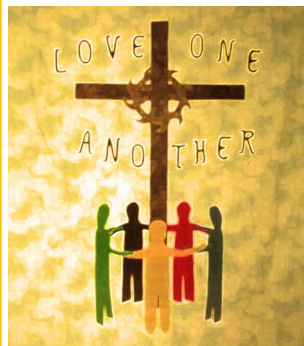

Love One Another. (John 13:34)

The time had come. Jesus had spent so much time teaching His apostles, revealing His Father to them, and preparing them to take His message of salvation to the world. But this was His last night on earth, and He wanted to make His final words to them count. And He did that by distilling all of His wisdom and revelation down into just one "new commandment" (John 13:34).

Love one another (John 13:34). Throughout His ministry, Jesus devoted Himself to teaching us how to live together in love. He knew that everything He said and did contributed to this goal. He longed to pull down all the dividing walls that keep us from treating each other as brothers and sisters, created out of love by the same heavenly Father. And now He was about to break the biggest dividing wall: the power of sin.

As I have loved you (John 13:34). All along, Jesus had shown His apostles what love looks like. He was infinitely patient with their weak faith and their misunderstanding of Him. He was constantly urging them to receive His Father's mercy so that they could show mercy to one another. And now He would go so far as to offer His own life on the cross to set them free. This is how He loved them: by laying down His life for them. And this is how He wants us to love each other: in tangible ways, by pouring ourselves out in love for each other.

Jesus is no longer with us in the same way that He was with His apostles. But He is with us through the gift of His Spirit, through our brothers and sisters in Christ, and through His presence in the Eucharist. He is still with us to shower His love on us and to help us love one another in return. So let's turn to Him and receive that love. Let's fulfill His new commandment!

"Jesus, thank you for Your love! Lord, teach me to love the people around me as You have loved me."
